

Here's what we're celebrating in 2018

JAN

NCL welcomes new guidance from the FTC to multi-level marketers in the fight against pyramid schemes.

FEB

NCL issues criticism of CFPB decision to stop protecting consumers from massive data breaches.

MAR

Anti-consumer air traffic control privatization legislation, which NCL opposed, fails to make it out of the House Transportation Committee.

APR

NCL staff testify before several state legislatures to present formal comments in favor of laws to end child marriage, with a victory in Delaware.

MAY

The backup camera automotive standard—for which NCL has long advocated—takes effect.

JUN

NCL supports efforts to stem the opioid epidemic by educating the public about safe drug disposal.

Menu labeling, which NCL supported, goes into effect at nation's restaurant chains and movie theaters.

SEPT

LifeSmarts turns 25! NCL looks forward to the next quarter-century of teaching teens and their families to be savvy consumers and workers.

OCT

An early leader in the effort to reduce food waste, NCL welcomed news of a joint initiative to fight food waste declared by USDA, EPA, and FDA.

DEC

NCL celebrates a win in the fight against autorenewal clauses hidden in consumer contracts with passage of new DC City Council law.

To learn more about what other consumer and worker protection issues we're working on, visit nclnet.org.